

Greek School 2011-2012

Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Cathedral

Why Greek School?

- Learn about Greek culture, history, art and contributions to civilization.
- Learning Greek improves your word power- thousands of English words are borrowed from Greek.
- Bilingual people have greater cognitive abilities and reduces the loss of cognitive abilities later in life.
- Language study correlates to higher ACT and SAT scores.
- Meet and interact with other Greek students.
- Besides, it's fun!

School Year

Term I: (12 weeks)

Tuesdays, September 13, 2011- December 13, 2011

4:30-6:30pm

No classes 9/29, 11/22

Term II: (12 weeks)

Tuesdays, January 3, 2012- March 20, 2012

4:30-6:30pm

Term III: (9 weeks)

Tuesdays, April 17, 2012- June 12, 2012

4:30-6:30pm

Now enrolling children aged 3- High School

Adult classes not offered at this time

Tuition Per Family

(if paid in full by September 11, 2011)

1 Student- $200

2 Students- $400

3 Students- $500

4 Students- $550

OR $75 per term per student

Tuition includes the cost of materials (such as books, art supplies, etc.), snacks, and teacher compensation.

Staff

Co-Directors

Pota Kahl 503.869.7211
Florence Protopapas 503.310.6987
GreekSchool@goholytrinity.org

Teaching Staff

Sia Hatzipavlou (Pre-School)
Imelda Sino (Kindergarten)
Dena George (Grades 1-3)
Christos Mandalides (Grades 1-6)
Father Dimo Paraskevaidis (Grades 1-12)
Presvytera Magdalene Paraskevaidis (Grades 3-12)

*Final class offerings by level will be determined by enrollment and are subject to change or cancellation if minimum class enrollment is not met.