

Greek School 2010-2011

Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Cathedral

Why Greek School?

- Learn about Greek culture, history, art and contributions to civilization.
- Learning Greek improves your word power- thousands of English words are borrowed from Greek.
- Bilingual people have greater cognitive abilities.
- Language study correlates to higher ACT and SAT scores.
- Meet and interact with other Greek students.
- Besides, it's fun!

School Year

Term 1: (14 weeks)

Tuesdays, September 14 - December 7, 2010

Pre-K(4 years old by Sept.1): 4:00-5:15 (subject to change)

Kindergarten: 5:15-6:30 (subject to change)

Grades 1-12 4:30-6:30 pm

No classes 9/28, 11/23

Term 2: (11 weeks)

Tuesdays, January 4, 2011- March 15, 2011

Pre-K: 4:00-5:15 (subject to change)

Kindergarten: 5:15-6:30 (subject to change)

Grades 1-12 4:30-6:30 pm

Term 3: (10 weeks)

Tuesdays, April 12 - June 7, 2011

Pre-K: 4:00-5:15 (subject to change)

Kindergarten: 5:15-6:30 (subject to change)

Grades 1-12 4:30-6:30 pm

No classes 4/19

Tuition

$60 per term ($150 if paid in full by September 7, 2010)

Maximum $300 per family

- Financial hardship cases will be reviewed by clergy on a individual basis

- Tuition includes the cost of materials, snacks, and teacher compensation

Staff

Co-Directors

Pota Kahl 503.869.7211

Florence Protopapas 503.310.6987

GreekSchool@goholytrinity.org

Teaching Staff

We welcome 3 new teachers to our staff this year due to losing Lia Galanis, who was being provided for us by the Greek Government.

Imelda Sino (Preschool/ Kindergarten)

Father John Angelis (Grades 1-12)

Father Dimo Paraskevaidis (Grades 1-12)

Presvytera Magdalene Paraskevaidis (Grades 1-12)

Classroom Volunteers

This year, parents will be asked to volunteer 1-2 times per term in the classroom to assist with students. No Greek is required. Sign-ups will be available on the first day of class.

*Final class offerings by level will be determined by enrollment and are subject to change.